

BEF Privacy Policy

This page explains how the Business Enterprise Fund uses any information you give to us, and the ways in which we protect your privacy.

The Data Protection Act

Under the Data Protection Act, we have a legal duty to protect any information we collect from you. We use leading technologies and password protection systems to safeguard your data, and keep strict security standards to prevent any unauthorised access to it. We do not pass on your details to any third party or government department unless you give us permission to do so.

What information do we collect?

We collect three kinds of information from visitors to www.befund.org, registration information, feedback (through emails to the administrator) and site usage information, from log files. We do not use cookies on our site and should this change in the future we would not load cookies onto your computer without your express permission

1 Registration information

You do not have to register to use www.befund.org, but you may need to register to take part in other interactive web media. The registration information we may collect is: your name, email address, business name, a town of residence (if you wish to give us one) and a contact telephone number.

2 Feedback

We welcome your feedback. You can contact us by emailing info@befund.org.

If you send an email or letter to the administrator, asking for information, we may need to contact other departments to find that information. If your question is technical, we may need to pass it to our technology suppliers. We do not pass on any of your personal information when dealing with your enquiry, unless you have given us permission to do so. Once we have replied to you, we keep a record of your message(s) for reference purposes. We use log files which allow us to record visitors' use of the site. We analyse log file information from all our visitors, which we use to make changes to the layout of the site and to the information in it, based on the way that visitors move around it. Log files do not contain any personal information and they are not used to identify any individual patterns of use of the site.

What happens when I link to another site?

www.befund.org contains links to other websites. This privacy policy applies only to our site, so you should always be aware when you are moving to another site and read the privacy statement of any site which collects personal information. We do not pass on any personal information you have given us to any other site.

Any information you have provided through our web application process, is secure and the data saved on our secure servers.

Access to your information and contacting the Business Enterprise Fund

If you wish to see our records of any correspondence you have sent to us, or if you have a query or complaint about this privacy policy or about the site, you can contact us by email: info@befund.org.

Changes to this privacy policy

If this privacy policy changes in any way, we will place an updated version on this page. Regularly reviewing this page ensures you are always aware of what information we collect, how we use it and under what circumstances, if any, we will share it with other parties.

Updated November 2011